

Child Care Options for Children Ages 5 and Older with E-Learning Opportunities

The Alignment Collaborative for Education and the Elgin Partnership for Early Learning have worked with local community partners to identify child care options while School District U-46 is using a remote learning plan, and parents are at work. A list of those organizations is provided below. Additional information about the specific organizations and programs offered is available by visiting the Elgin Partnership for Early Learning (EPEL) website at elginpartnership.org or by contacting the organizations directly.
